Frederickton, New Brunswick is a beautiful place to live. Whether you are enjoying your independence or raising a family, you will surely find unique venues to enjoy life. It continually ranks as one of the best places to live in Canada. It has all the amenities of a large city but the feel of a small town. There are two universities and community colleges, a regional airport, a solid health care system and hospital, as well as amazing hiking trails and pathways throughout the city to enjoy the outdoors. Whether you want to live in an apartment or purchase a home of your own, the cost of living is noticeably more affordable than other provinces in Canada.
